The Court has considered the defendant's unopposed motion to continue the trial date and pretrial motions deadline, as well as Mr. Tran's knowing and voluntary speedy trial waiver. The Court grants the unopposed motion and finds that:

1. Taking into account the exercise of due diligence and given defense counsel's need for additional time to review and analyze discovery materials and to conduct investigation and effectively prepare for trial, pretrial motions, negotiations with the Government, and advising Mr. Tran, not granting a continuance would deny the defendant reasonable time necessary for effective preparation of his case. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

2. Given the considerations outlined above, the ends of justice served by granting a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a
